Transfer of Benefits - Money Purchase

Transfer of benefits from Money Purchase
Occupational Pension Scheme to SIPP

As your SIPP administrator we believe it is important that we seek to ensure that you are aware of and understand the nature of the benefits that you are proposing to surrender.

You must take professional advice before proceeding - we will not accept the transfer unless such advice has been taken and this Declaration by you is countersigned overleaf by the adviser, who must be authorised to give pension transfer advice. This will enable you to make a well informed decision regarding your occupational benefits.

Pointon York SIPP Solutions Limited and Crescent Trustees Limited are not able to provide you with advice regarding this matter. In order to assist you, we have provided below a summary of the key points that you should have considered with your adviser and understood.

- Any differences between the benefit structures of your Occupational Pension Scheme and the SIPP, in particular, any pension payable on your death to your spouse, civil partner or dependents, ill health provision and any lump sum death benefits.
- The pension you get from your SIPP will depend on the amount you transfer and/or contribute, the performance of the investments you choose, charges and how much pension your fund can buy when you decide to retire.
- You carry the risk if the investments within your SIPP perform badly.
- You may incur new front end charges when you invest your transfer value with your chosen investment providers.
- The difference in investment risk in moving from your Occupational Pension Scheme to a SIPP.
- If you were a member of the above scheme on 10 December 2003 then, depending on the rules of that scheme, it is possible that you have a protected early retirement age under that scheme. This protection will normally be lost on transfer.
- It is possible that your tax-free cash entitlement accrued prior to 6 April 2006 under the above scheme is protected. This tax free cash protection may be lost on transfer.
- If you have registered with HM Revenue & Customs for Enhanced Protection it is possible that this protection may be lost on transfer.
- Once you have transferred rights out of your existing pension scheme, you will not be able to transfer back.

In addition to the above key points, which are not exhaustive, you will of course have considered the suitability of this transaction in line with your own personal and financial circumstances and attitude to risk.

Before we can proceed with this transaction on your behalf, please date and sign overleaf and return this form to confirm that you understand the nature of the benefits you are surrendering and that you have taken appropriate advice. This will not affect any right you have to withdraw from the transfer within 30-days of completion.
